It's dangerous to lean like that especially at this height.
It's quite alright to be dangerous.

Why don't you go home.
They should be worried about you.
Your parents.

If I fall from here,
Do you want to die ?
Will I be able to die ?
Why ... ?

Because,
if I die, he will no longer be able to harass me.

Mother was especially late on that night.

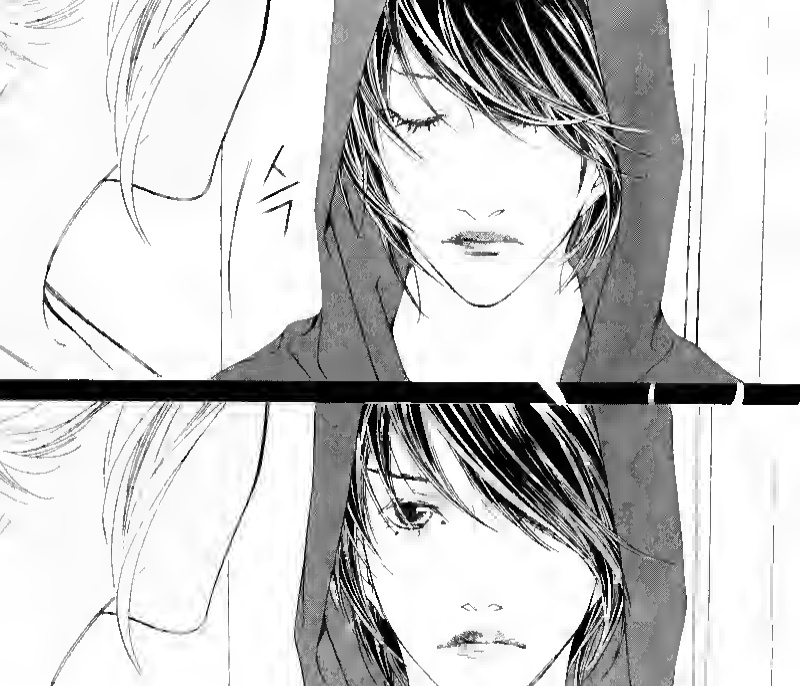
She was with a boy of my age.

Are you sure I can come in ?
Of course.
It will be your home, too, you know.



And apparently,

he is going to live here.

She prepared breakfast, but where did she go ?

What are you doing?
I came to wake him up.
But he seems to be sleeping so well that ...
Is he going to attend my school, too ?
Yeah, I am going to put him in your class.

You said he was a distant relative.
What's the connection?
You've never told me anything about any relatives.
Just finish you meal and get ready.
If you don't, I am not going to give you a ride.
And I've never met my maternal grandparents.
As if I care about getting a ride.
Mother always changes subject when I talk about relatives.

When I was a kid, I even [illegible] she didn't have any [illegible] on her side.
I [illegible] think [illegible] may [illegible] be [illegible] case.

You are looking quite serious.
I think it's been raining quite frequently during summer in last few years.
I like this kind of weather.
Yeah, I do know.

... In this era, women were not allowed to remarry.
What this term means is that, for women, before marriage,

They obey their father. After marriage, they obey their husbands.
And after their husbands pass away, they obey their sons.
